 - 1st-Rogers 2nd-Striker Roll call: Crowe-yes, Rogers-yes, Striker-yes
- Commissioner Striker will put cost together to refurbish the sixteen Historical Markers throughout Hardin County.

Sheriff Everhart and Chief Deputy Dennis Burns had discussion on what the Multi-County Jail proposes for more bed space. Sheriff noted some building expenses for this year. Sheriff noted a hardship with a new deputy being deployed long term. The Multi-County Crash Investigation Team is working out very well and is a benefit to Hardin County. There is a quarterly meeting today the Commissioners were invited. Five new vests were purchased with grant funds that paid half of the expense. Sheriff is moving forward with Spectrum for phone/internet service.

Kyle Camper, Dog Warden, reported two dogs in the kennel. He is keeping track of the townships so he knows where he needs to step up. Concrete pads were poured last week for the new kennels. Kyle purchased a tablet from Verizon to help in the field. There will be a monthly recurring charge for internet usage on the tablet. The cement pad in front of the door did swell a little but did not cause any issues.

Mark Badertscher, OSU Extension, Ag and Natural Resource update. He reviewed his 2018 Annual Report. The Annual Master Gardener Conference will be held at ONU for 2000 participants. OSU is asking to put phones and computers in their local office, when does the contract end? He will contact the IT Coordinator for information.

The Commissioners, Clerk and Maintenance Supervisor toured the attic. Commissioner Rogers moved to authorize Rish Masonry to remove pavers and replace the west apron up to the sidewalk to match the east side of the courthouse. 5” with 1612.2 sq ft. Cost of $8504.48 to come from N02 Permanent Improvement. Commissioner Striker second. Roll call: Striker-yes, Crowe-yes, Rogers-yes. V102-184.
