Brent Boehm, his wife works at Hardin Hills. He does not see improvement. 55 years of experience has been lost since the new Administration came. Staff is quitting. Community Service could be used to read to people instead of hiring the Hospitality Aide (in Kenton Times last night). He showed facebook conversations. He noted residents are talking of leaving as they aren't getting enough care. Staff is being denied vacation time off. Morale is down. The dog has growled at him, he was told to file a formal complaint. Should ask for volunteers instead of hiring hospitality aides. A letter was posted by the time clock to re-evaluate your position here and if not happy-leave. Commissioners requested a copy and spoke with the Administrator.

Roll call resulted as follows:
