Holli Underwood, Hardin County Business and Chamber Alliance. The web site is being updated. Holli is currently taking the new Directors course. Renovations are starting on an establishment around the square and working with issues with replacement of the sidewalk in front of the store. Hopefully resources can be pursued to help with the cost. She continues to work on a new site that should be confirmed by the end of September. Holli updated on the Morton Building changes. 20 acres and some buildings are for sale. Ohio Means Jobs offered their services remotely for those that lost their jobs. Unemployment is down 3% statewide. Hardin is at 10.2%. Statewide 10.9%. With the $600 extra unemployment gone, business are starting to see new hires and are opening up again. Her staff is brainstorming to come up with ideas for the CARES Act Funds. They will put together a list of events that were cancelled, cost of cancellation and the affect.
